

Not even the result marred an excellent day's golf on the links at Kingsdown. Bright and breezy weather encouraged low scoring but, as ever, the course presented a challenge for any wayward shots. With fairways "better than carpets" and tip-top catering, the teams left happy after a tightly contested match.

Congratulations to Gloucestershire on edging an admirable away win.