

South Wales Coast Golf Captains vs Wiltshire Golf Captains

Creigiau Golf Club

Wednesday 30th May 2018

Match Report

The inaugural match between Wiltshire GC and our new found friends from the South Wales Coast GC was played in the best of spirits at Creigiau Golf Club on Wednesday 30th May 2018.

Despite the poor weather forecast that morning, the rain thankfully made a final retreat shortly after the 1st tee time, allowing the match to be played under cloudy skies, without the need for waterproofs.

This was my first experience at Match Secretary, and I am grateful to the selected team being available, with one exception due to illness, meaning a special thankyou is due to David Ruffett who stepped in at short notice to complete the team.

Creigiau Golf Club is a delightful course, established in 1921, and on behalf of all those who had the pleasure of playing their course, I can say without hesitation that it is a real gem. Should anyone be planning a golf trip to South Wales, then try to include it in your itinerary.

The result was not quite what we had hoped for, although” Hatters” took every opportunity to remind us all that he and his poor suffering partner for the day, Derek Headech did win their match.....WELL DONE ANDY & DEREK!!

As you will see from the attached photographs, one of the SWCGC players is either colour blind, a recent inmate at Guantanamo Bay who wanted to keep his clothing as a souvenir, or perhaps just a man with impeccable dress sense....and for those who played, the golf trousers he wore on the course will no doubt leave a lasting impression.

We all look forward to the return fixture at Wrag Barn at the end of May 2019, when I trust the selected team will turn the tables with an equally impressive win on home turf.
