

WILTSHIRE GOLF CAPTAINS Vs DORSET GOLF CAPTAINS

25TH APRIL 2019

UPAVON GOLF CLUB

MATCH REPORT

The Wiltshire Golf Captains played their first match of the season against Dorset Captains at Upavon Golf Club. To start with there were some blustery April showers which soon disappeared leaving challenging windy conditions. The course and greens were in excellent condition following the Spring maintenance a couple of weeks ago.

Everyone enjoyed the day playing in good company, with friendly banter and great camaraderie! Not only did we have a Hercules flypast but also the Queens flight did a pass over the course. (The things we lay on to impress our visitors at Upavon!).

Following the golf we had a very good two course meal enjoyed by all. Captain Pat sadly had to concede defeat to Captain Bill of Dorset going down 4.5 to 3.5 in a very tight match, all resting on the last group. Things were wound up at the end of the evening with a splendid monologue from Captain Bill regarding a tattoo artist from Rotherham!!

32 weary golfers wound their way home at the end of the day, tired but contented after a most enjoyable day.
